Department of Bengali , Report on Mentor-Mentis Programme

Session 2020-2021

Date 11.08.2021

Due to the Covid 19 situation and lockdown, it was very important to take online classes. Department of Bengali has taken classes through Google Classroom in the academic year 2020-2021. Study materials have been provided to the students along with regular online classes. Mentor Mentis List of Honors has been provided to the group of students. Students in online mode have discussed their problems with them. Special classes have been taken for both advanced learner and slow learner types.

REPORT

DATE:28.12.2020

Department of environmental studies was organize a mentor- mentee programme in online mode in the 1st week of December 2020.Total number of 1st semester students are divided into 10 different groups for mentoring .All the faculties of department of environmental studies took the responsibility to mentoring the students. Two teachers are mentoring of 6 group three for each teacher and one teacher have 4 group for mentoring. All students 'advice to attend their respective counseling session. At the beginning of the class in December each teacher counseling their respective groups, about new normal situation and how to cope up with that. Our main focus was to accustom the new enrolled student how to attend the online class and associated formalities, though they are not habituated in this online forum. Also encourage them to take this new normal social life enthusiastically. Hand by hand in our daily basis online classes we try to boost up them for mental wellbeing. In the mid-week of December another counseling program are conducted, the main issue of the mentoring is to overcome the examination related phobia. Our main goal of this counseling session to prepare the students how to overcome the drastic change occur in question pattern in MCQ to subjective analysis. Students were very much puzzle about this change, we try our best to support them mentally.
